The uvex top grade 8400 and 8500 safety gloves are the ideal companions for professional drivers, for example in shipping, postal and courier services. These driving gloves made of soft nappa leather offer a high level of grip — both behind and away from the wheel, for example when loading and unloading goods. The leather safety gloves adapt optimally to the shape of the hand, ensuring an outstanding feel and comfort. What's more, the inner elastic ensures that the safety gloves fit perfectly.
